- 1. On 31 October 1951 the Ministry of Government finally agreed to release Jorge del Prado Chavez, former Secretary General of the Peruvia Communist Party (PCP), on the condition that he immediately leave the country. Through the efforts of Genero Carnem Checa, managing director of the Communist-line newswagazine, 1951, the promise of a visu from the Argentine Embassy has been obtained. The PCP is now trying to collect 3, 00 soles for del Prado's passage by plane to Buenos Aires.
- 2. Earlier, in September, it was reported that del Prado's wife was very pessimistic concerning her husband's release, in spite of the continued efforts on his behalf of leaders of the PCP, "friends" of the PCP, and his relatives. She stated that when del Prado was taken to Are mips from Yura, following his except on 20 June 1951, he was interviewed by Alejandro Espersa Zanartu, Director of Covernment, who was in Acequipa at that time, During the interview, del Prado was accompanied by Julio C. Guerrero, a retired Lieutenant Colonel of the Peruvian Army, According to del Prado's wife, Guerrero's presence at the interview with Esparsa apparently gave the husband a false feeling of security and he made the grave error of "talking back" to Esparsa. Esparsa, no accustomed to this, ordered that del Prado be taken to Lima.
